Standing on the Promises

Peter declared, "Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you." — Matthew 26:35

In the movie It Can Happen to You, a police officer is unable to pay a tip, so he promises the waitress half of a lottery winning the next day if he wins. He wins four million dollars. His wife does not want him to share the money with the waitress. Cage has to decide -whether or not to keep his promise, which he does at a price.

Peter made a promise to Jesus: "Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you." Yet later that night Peter "wept bitterly" because he had denied three times that he knew Jesus, who had now been arrested. How could Peter be a loyal friend at one moment and then disown Jesus the next?

If we are honest, we have to admit that we could have done the same. Peter was probably afraid that he could be arrested and sentenced with Jesus. In fact, all of Jesus' disciples deserted him that night. Alone outside at dawn, Peter wept bitterly, having broken his relationship with Jesus. But thankfully Peter's relationship with Jesus did not end there. After his death and resurrection, Jesus forgave and restored Peter to serve him more boldly than before (John 21:15-19).

Our world is full of broken promises. Yet at the center of life is the promise-keeping God who went to the cross to restore our broken world and our broken lives, calling us to serve. We might fail, but God never does.

Ministry Updates

Sunday Morning and Wednesday Night Classes

Our Sunday morning and Wednesday night classes have resumed. Please join us in one of our classes Sunday mornings at 9am or Wednesday nights at 7pm.

Mountain States Children's Home Food Drive

Today is the last day to get your donations in for the Mountain States Children's Home Food Drive. A collection box is located in the outer foyer. Also if you still have a coin can it can be turned into the office for pick up.

Church Library

Over the years our church has assembled a large library. This is a reminder that this library is available for all of our members. You will find a wide variety of books available from commentaries to Christian fiction and children's books. The library is located on the right side of the auditorium, next to the toddler class room. The books are checked out on a honor system and I hope you find a book for you and your family to enjoy.

Orphan Sunday

This year we will set aside Sunday November 8th to speak about the Voice of the Orphans a Orphan's Lifeline International endeavor. This will be a time to reflect on orphans across the world including the United States. We will also have a separate contribution for this effort.
