Remember Me, Remember Me Not

Humans are creatures of amnesia. Both history and scripture can attest to selective forgetfulness.

John 8:33- They answered him, "We are Abraham's descendants and have never been slaves of anyone. How can you say that we shall be set free?" and repeating previous mistakes Luke 22:33-34- They answered him, "We are Abraham's descendants and have never been slaves of anyone. How can you say that we shall be set free?"

Luke 22:54-62- Then seizing him, they led him away and took him into the house of the high priest. Peter followed at a distance. <sup>55</sup> And when some there had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and had sat down together, Peter sat down with them. <sup>56</sup> A servant girl saw him seated there in the firelight. She looked closely at him and said, "This man was with him." But he denied it. "Woman, I don't know him," he said. A little later someone else saw him and said, "You also are one of them." "Man, I am not!" Peter replied. About an hour later another asserted, "Certainly this fellow was with him, for he is a Galilean." Peter replied, "Man, I don't know what you're talking about!" Just as he was speaking, the rooster crowed. <sup>61</sup> The Lord turned and looked straight at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word the Lord had spoken to him: "Before the rooster crows today, you will disown me three times." <sup>62</sup> And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Unsurprisingly, remembrance is a key theme throughout scripture. Furthermore, the embodiment of habituated remembrance is the act of reconciliation— a "re-membering". In other words, the response of remembrance is to re-member. In a broken world where we forget the love of God far too often, we are called to remind others of the hope we have and the message of the gospel—that God fully knows/fully loves us and that we belong to Him. The God of everlasting remembrance and faithfulness will never forget us and will re-member us.
