Sometimes we might think faith was easier for the disciples because they could walk and talk and eat with Jesus in person. On the night before he died, Jesus told his disciples that they were going to receive the Holy Spirit. Depending on what version of the Bible you are reading, the Spirit is called the Advocate, Helper, Counselor, or Comforter. And each title helps to explain who the Spirit is and what the Spirit does.

So, in our times of doubt, we can take comfort knowing that no matter what it feels like, God is in fact present with us. In fact, through the Spirit, God has come closer to us than ever before.

Luke 2:14
Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men.
