The Darkness of Betrayal

First of all, betrayal is always shocking. Anytime betrayal takes place it's shocking. Few things are more hurtful or shocking than when someone we trust betrays us. It's always shocking to be betrayed by a friend, a spouse or anyone close. It's one thing to be betrayed by someone we trust. But what about when we betray others who trust us? How much worse is it when we betray Jesus?

Third and finally, there's hope for us Judas' in this world. If somewhere in your life there's a betrayal, there's still hope. Judas didn't understand that. He went and hanged himself. How tragic! If the grace of Jesus Christ means anything, it means that we who are betrayers can come to the cross, and have that terrible weight of our crime taken from us. All of us have betrayed Jesus in many ways. But there's hope for all us Judas' in this world. And that hope is that there is forgiveness available to us through Christ.
